FOUNDING VICE CHANCELLOR

O.P. JINDAL GLOBAL UNIVERSITY (JGU)

Professor (Dr.) C. Raj Kumar, a Rhodes Scholar, is the Founding Vice Chancellor of O.P. Jindal Global University (JGU) in India. He was appointed as the VC at the age of 34 in 2009 when the university was established.

Professor Kumar is an accomplished legal scholar and works in the fields of human rights and development, comparative constitutional law, terrorism and national security, corruption and governance, law and disaster management, legal education and higher education. He has seven books and over hundred and fifty publications to his credit and has published widely in peer reviewed journals, and law reviews in Australia, Hong Kong, India, Japan and the USA.

Professor Kumar conceived the idea of establishing India's first 'Global University' and with the visionary leadership and philanthropic support of Mr. Naveen Jindal, established JGU in Sonapat, Haryana in 2009. JGU has completed ten years and has grown into a multidisciplinary and research-oriented university with eight different schools relating to law, business, international affairs, public policy, liberal arts & humanities, journalism & communication, art & architecture and banking & finance. JGU has acquired a stellar reputation in India and abroad for its effort to promote excellence in teaching, research, capacity building and community service.

In recognition of its contributions, JGU was awarded the highest grade "A" by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). In 2018, JGU was granted "Autonomy" by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India becoming one of only two private universities in India to achieve this coveted recognition. JGU is also the Youngest Indian University to feature in the QS World University Rankings by breaking into the QS BRICS Rankings 2019 and QS Asia Rankings 2019. In September 2019, JGU was selected as an 'Institution of Eminence' (IOE) by the Government of India, making JGU one of only eight private universities in India to be awarded this status.

Professor Kumar has academic qualifications from the University of Oxford, Harvard University, University of Hong Kong, University of Delhi and Loyola College.
