Mir Taqi Mir: Discourses on Love, Language, Life

by

Professor Anisur Rahman

Mir Taqi Mir (1723-1810) is generally considered as a poet who developed philosophized discourses on love, language, and life. This talk will examine these aspects and also discuss, in turn, his symbolic configurations, his irreverence, and his understanding of cosmic reality that confirm his canonical status in Urdu's literary history.

Anisur Rahman, formerly Professor of English at Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi, is currently Senior Advisor at Rekhta Foundation. He has worked and published extensively in the areas of Postcolonial Literature(s), Translation, and Comparative Studies.
