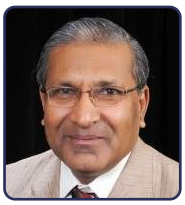
Understanding Deprivation and Socio-Economic Marginalization: Evidence, Methods, Agenda

by



Dr. Abusaleh Shariff

Maulana Azad Chair Professor
Maulana Azad National Urdu University, Hyderabad

Dr Abu Saleh Shariff is a prominent economist and demographer who works on various aspects of human development and inclusive growth. He is currently the Maulana Azad Chair Professor at the Maulana Azad National Urdu University, Hyderabad. Among his many appointments, he has served as a Chief Economist with the National Council of Applied Economic Research (New Delhi), member-secretary of the 'Sachar Committee' on the socio-economic conditions of Indian Muslims, and member of the 'Committee for the Consultations on the Situation in Andhra Pradesh' (2010). He has authored numerous human development reports on India. His most recent book, 'Institutionalizing Constitutional Rights Post-Sachar Committee Scenario', was published by the Oxford University Press in 2016.

Abstract

What is the state of socio-economic marginalization in the country today? How should we conceptualize the relationship between poverty, subordination and social identities? And is there a way to bring together economic growth, social empowerment and constitutional vision? Prominent economist, Dr. Abu Saleh Shariff will discuss insights from his body of work and ongoing empirical research on these issues, and throw light on the directions that human development research must take.
